

SETE 2016

Symposium on Emerging Technologies for Education

In conjunction with ICWL 2016

(Call for Workshops Proposals)

Location: Sapienza University, Roma, Italy

Conference Date: October 26-29, 2016

The SETE 2016 organizing committee invites proposals for workshops to be held in conjunction with the main conference. The purpose of a workshop is to provide participants with the opportunity to present and discuss novel research ideas related to active and emerging topics in symposium on emerging technologies for education. The workshop organizers will be responsible for setting up the workshop website, coordinating the review process and collecting the camera ready papers. Workshop authors are required to have a full registration to the main conference. Based on last years' tradition, we will publish accepted workshop papers in a separate post-proceedings volume in Springer Lecture Notes in Computer Science (LNCS). Researchers from academia and industry are invited to take this opportunity and submit workshop proposals on hot topics in the scope of the conference. All proposals will be reviewed and evaluated by the SETE 2016 organizing committee.
